FOR THE CITY OF WIEN- VIENNA

... many people are under the impression that she is KALT, ALT, TEUER, LANGWEILIG = cold, old, expensive, boring, .. city for retired & classical music weirdos...

ERSTER FEHLER= FIRST MISTAKE!

Oh Vienna ... a misrepresented Eden for youth & alter acts, oldies are Goldie's for cultural friends . . It's a lot of fun here, beautiful, safe.. even cheep! ... the locals are a pleasant wacky bunch...

W.A. MOZART

... soon bored in Salzburg... surprise surprise;-), off to Munich, Rome... Prague & Paris.. & the Vienna of 1781 Die Zauberflöte = THE MAGIC FLUTE ... he was appointed to the Emperor J. Of which he said that the pay was

he is also quoted as saying about LIVE ‚That young man; will make himself a name in the world!" - ‚Speaking of BEETHOVEN who lived here in 1795.- For the premiere of his „FIRST SYMPHONY", Beethoven hired the Burgtheater (G3) on 2 April 1800.. In Wien these two composers are truly Unsterbliche Geliebte = at THE IMMORTAL BELOVED is buried here 254 years ago)....

On a LIGHTER NOTE & if you stick around town long enough Zentralfriedhof -

THE CENTRAL CEMETERY

Est 1874 & is Vienna's largest burial ground. 2,500,000 people have gone six feet under during the last 140 years (even now people are still dying to get in there). There is a special section (Ehrengräber) where VIP artists & politics are buried.

..E.g. BRAHMS, SCHUBERT, THE STRAUSS'ES & BEETHOVEN... SCHWEIGHOFER- the man who invented grand pianos..

tram 71 from „Schwarzenbergplatz" (G4) get off just before the bridge... Not as large & just a few stops further is the ST. MARX CEMETERY
